

Student Research Conference 2018

9th of November at Leiden University College The Hague

Do you think your bachelor research is the most ground-breaking?! Do you want to share your research with the world or do you know a (fellow) student whose bachelor project is award winning? Do not hesitate and go to www.studentresearchconference.nl and read how to submit your bachelor research to the Student Research Conference (SRC) 2018. The deadline for submitting your paper is July the 29th.

During this annual contest and conference, the best bachelor researches are selected by a professional review committee and jury, and these students will have the opportunity to present their research in front of an audience and be awarded for their research! Prizes can be up to €1.000,- within many different categories! During the conference on the 9th of November 2018, you have the opportunity to meet hundreds of other students and involved people from the bachelor research world from all different disciplines. In addition to these prizes, the SRC will boost your CV, presentation skills and your experience with scientific conferences.

Still not convinced? Take a look at the Student Research Conference 2017 After Movie and you can also visit our Facebook page for more photos! It does not matter in which discipline of research you are specialized in, you can always submit your research and perhaps you will become one of the winners of the Student Research Conference of 2018!
